CLAMORED FOR BOY'S LIFE

Denied Admission to Park, Youth Shoots a Man.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.-John Reid, 17 years old, fatally shot one man after holding at bay a crowd of about 1000 holding at bay a crowd of about 1000 persons and when captured by a policeman narrowly escaped being killed by a mob which clamored for bis life at an amusement park last night.

When the boy, who, the police say, had been drinking, attempted to enter the park, the employees refused to admit him. Drawing a revolver, Reid aimed at them and every one got out of range. The ensuing commotion caused a large crowd to gather and Reid started to run away. After running several blocks he turned and pulled the trigger, but the cartridge failed to explode.

The crowd decided to disarm the lad The crowd decided to disarm the lad by a concentrated rush and as it rushed forward Reid leveled his pistol and fired. The bullet struck John Wilkin-son in the groin. He was taken to a hospital, where it was said he prob-ably would die.

When the crowd saw Wilkinson wounded it fell back and no further at-tempts were made to capture Reid un-

Decides Against Gas Works. CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—Commissioner of Public Works Fatterson today decided that the Peoples Gas, Light & Coke company, which has practically a mono-poly in Chicago, has no ordinance right to sell gas manufactured outside the city. It is alleged that gas thus obtained at 55 cents is sold to consumers here at $1.

WIFE HAS NUMEROUS COMPLAINTS TO MAKE

Catherine Ball's Divorce Petition Sets Out Many Troubles.

In an action for divorce filed yesterday by Mrs. Catherine A. Ball of this city igainst Frank R. Ball, the recital of the wife's troubles fills several pages of typewritten legal cup. To sustain the allegawritten legal cap. To sustain the anega-tion of crucity, it is recited that the hus-band refused to give her the sympathy and comfort that is due a wife; that he threatened to send away the plaintiff's mother when the wife was sick; that he refused to buy her medicines and swore at her because she would not get up and get breakfast when she was sick in bed.

Shocked Religious Senze. An allegation seldom found in a court record is one which explains that the plaintiff, being of a religious turn of mind, is accustomed to ask the bleasing at table; that when she attempted to do so she was interrupted by the defendant, who insisted that she "cut it short;" thereby shocking the moral and religious sense of the plaintiff and causing her mental distress.

Alimony Is Asked.

Mrs. Ball alleges that her husband is worth $1500 and makes about $200 per month. She demands $75 per month alimony $200 for costs and attorneys' fees, and the custody of three minor children. The parties were married at Chillicothe, Mo., May 24, 1883.

BISHOP STANG FOR PLACE

Will Probably Succeed Late Archbishop Chapelle.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.-The World this morning says that Bishop Stang of Fall River, Mass., will probably be the successor of the late Archbishop Chapelle at New Orleans. It adds:

"Dr. Stang is regarded as the most off. Stang is regarded as the most available candidate for the vacant see. He speaks fluently English, German and French, and for this reason would be well qualified to fill the vacancy because of the cosmopolitan population of the archdiocese of New Orleans. He has been most favorably recommended by influential Catholic ecclesiastics." Bishop Stang was for many years rector of the eathedral at Providence, R. I., and later became vice-rector of the American college at Louvain. From this he was promoted to the new see of Fall River, Mass.

He has for many years been promi-nently identified with the work of Catholic education and of church extension in the Eastern States.

MYSTERY IN DROWNING

Arthur Sloane Met Death in Crystal Springs.

SAN MATEO, Sept. 22.—Arthur Stoane of San Francisco was drowned in Crystal Springs lake recently and the query is whether the tragedy was the result of accident or suicide. Stoane was employed by the Spring Valley Water company. He was missed from the party in the early afternoon and a scarch was organized at a point where the banks are very high and precipitous. His hat was seen flonting on the water, which is thirty feet deep there.
